From the Rabbi

I Dare You To . . .

There are few places today, outside of the State of Israel, where it is safer to be a Jew than in the United States of America. While of course anti-Semitism exists, attitudes toward Jews are overwhelmingly positive. In all professions and walks of life there are Jews in leadership positions; laws protect us from discrimination and bigotry; and the free and open nature of American society has promoted a flourishing of Jewish creativity and diversity. And yet, many of us are hesitant to publicly identify as Jews.

I proudly put my UT25 magnet on my car bumper . . . I know that most people did not wish to do so. Many of you tell me that when in airports or public places you won't wear a Star of David or an identifying Jewish symbol. To be sure, we are proud to be Jews. At the same time, we don't always go out of our way to share this essential and intrinsic part of our identity. Lingering anti-Semitism and the insecurity of being a minority makes us cautious, despite living in the most open and accepting country in the world.

This is the month to overcome that insecurity – to “put yourself out there as a Jew.” August 23 is our annual open house – an opportunity to learn about our first rate Religious School, our myriad of social and educational programs, the joyous spiritual life that is the foundation of the CBS family. Those who are members look forward to the opportunity to reconnect, to greet each other after summer travels. However, the key word in open house is . . . open! This is our opportunity to share the impact and value of CBS with those who have yet to discover us. And for that, we need you. You are the best advertisement for Beth Shalom.

What does that mean? That means sharing about your Jewish life with the neighbor who you noticed had a Chanukah menorah in her window. It means approaching the work colleague who says that her husband is Jewish and inviting them to the open house. It means sharing who you are as a Jew with interfaith families, LGBT individuals and couples, singles and families – and assuring them that everyone has a place at Beth Shalom. It means calling up someone you know, and inviting them to come with you on August 23 to learn about the community that has been integral to you and your Jewish life.

We are sensitive to appearing to recruit, having sometimes been on the receiving end of such recruitment. We are sometimes reluctant to seem overly zealous as a Jew, lest we open ourselves up to discrimination. I understand these fears. But without our willingness to share our passion about Beth Shalom with others, we cannot reach our potential. And that means sharing who you are as a Jew as well. Reach out to two or more people, share your love of Beth Shalom with them, the impact the synagogue has had on your Jewish life and invite them to accompany you to the open house. I dare you.

Mark your calendars...from Selichot through Shmini Atzeret—join us in worship during the High Holy Days! The schedule is inside this Kibbitzer, as well as on our website!

From the President - Jeff Newman

How would I know what I am missing?

This is the 3rd part of my 4 part series on the knowledge of my grandparents.

Today I get to talk about my favorite – my mom's mom, Frieda. She had a sarcastic, razor-sharp wit and a keen memory.

She always told us she would jump out of her 6th floor apartment if we married a non-Jew. She was always pushing us to stay in the faith, but listen to this story she imparted to us on the East River Drive while driving to her house:

Grandma Frieda was part of a social club. Frenchy, as she was called, had an active social life. She told us she even dated a few non-Jews and kissed them. I asked her how she could kiss non-Jews after her adamant stand on marrying them. She waited 20 seconds and then wisecracked, "how else would I know what I am missing."

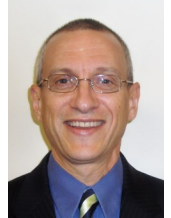

My grandmother always knew a good punch line.

Our Open House is in August. We will have all the different committees outreaching to our current and new members to get involved. We need new blood to infuse our temple with new ideas, energy and leadership. We need to have our current temple friendships to intermingle and create a stronger temple.

If we all stay in our little cocoon of the familiar, of the safe, then we will never know what we have missed out on. If I had not tried teaching 5th grade religious school 14 years ago, I would have missed out on 8 years of great memories and learning. If I had not tried out leadership in our temple, I would not have forged the solid relationships and experiences I have today.

My grandmother's words also speak of inclusivity of our temple. I am very proud that we are a diverse, open Jewish community and we strive to continue these practices. We welcome Jews from all walks of life and we respect individual viewpoints and lifestyles. We gain from the different experiences of others.

It was my grandmother's way of saying that we all need to learn from others and experience things that are new to us. She was funny and wise...a great combination for all of us.

OUR FUTURE IS BRIGHT, and THE FUTURE IS YOU!

KOLOT SHALOM NOTES

In the words of the Jewish musical a cappella group, One Direction, what makes Rosh Hashanah beautiful? Is it the shofar blowing? The prayers? The music? Or is it the fact that we all have a new beginning?

The Jewish New Year arrives right at the opening of a new school year. And just as parents everywhere plan ahead for their child's schedule of activities, we at Beth Shalom are planning our new beginning and becoming familiar with our new prayer book.

My hope is that you've all had a very happy and relaxing summer, and that you may return fervently committed to partaking in our New Year's services.

One of the integral parts of these services is the music. We are fortunate at Beth Shalom to have our Cantorial soloists, Kevin Frye and Sandy Santucci, to lead us, as well as our choir, Kolot Shalom. Kolot Shalom is always open to new members. If you enjoy singing and would like to join our singers, please come to the first High Holy Days rehearsal on August 17 at 7:30 PM. It's that easy. For further

Like to get your hands dirty? Roll up your sleeves and be hands on? We could use your skills, enthusiasm, and those very hands on August 16th and/or August 30th, both between 9:30am and 11:30am. Our August 16th date is to spruce up the temple before our Open House, and the 30th is to brighten and shine the place in time for the High Holy Days. Contact Seth Dugan (just click on his name) to let him know how you can help!

Get Ready! Sunday, August 16 begins the Hebrew month of Elul, the month of personal preparation in advance of the High Holy Days. The meaning and significance of the Days of Awe is enhanced and enriched by a month of self-reflection, in which we examine who we are, who we might become and how to repair relationships with others. These resources will be available to you:

- A booklet of daily prayers, available at the Temple
- A CD of High Holy Day prayers to help you learn and reflect on the melodies
- A daily quote and question for reflection on our CBS FB page.
- Weekly videos on our website with insights from our new High Holyday Prayerbook, Mishkan HaNefesh

Take the time to prepare to greet the New Year of 5776. You won't be sorry!

The URJ Biennial this time around is right in our backyard, and will be an experience of a lifetime! An added bonus is the Presidential Candidate forum on Saturday night moderated by Chuck Todd of Meet The Press! Registration is now open!

Lifelong Learning—Sheila Fishman

Your Lifelong Learning Committee continues to meet over the summer to present another exciting, educational year.

Page Turners will continue to meet every other month. Our first program was offered on Monday, July 20 at 6-7:30p.m. with Phyllis Newman for a discussion of the novel: "The Plot Against America" by Phillip Roth. Our next Page Turners will be offered on September 21, 2015 at 6p.m. The book will be announced under separate cover. The moderator will be Anita Hoffman. So bring your dinner or a snack and join us for an exciting discussion.

We will continue to sponsor Bibles and Bagels on four specific Shabbat mornings. Our dates are October 31, 2015, December 12, 2015, January 23, 2016 and April 9, 2016. Please reserve these dates on your calendar.

Rabbi Torop will also be offering three educational programs on three consecutive Tuesday evenings in the following months—November, January and April. These classes will be thought provoking and stimulating. Please follow future Kibbitzer articles for details.

Additionally, we will be sponsoring Saturday Night at the Movies. Efforts are now underway to identify an enjoyable, Jewish themed movie for you.

Finally, we will be sponsoring our Scholar in Residence Weekend on October 16 and October 17. Our scholar will be Rabbi Debbie Prinz. Rabbi Prinz recently served the Central Conference of American Rabbis as Director of Program and Member Services and the Director of the Joint Commission on Rabbinic Mentoring, having held a number of leadership positions in the national and regional Reform movement. Elected by her colleagues, Rabbi Prinz held each office of the Board of the Pacific Association of Reform Rabbis and assumed its presidency in 2005. For many years she served as a member of the Executive Committee of the U.R.J.-C.C.A.R. Commission on Outreach & Synagogue Community. The Rabbi Emerita of Temple Adat Shalom, Poway, California, she served as its Senior Rabbi for almost twenty years. Prior to that she was, for seven years, the Rabbi of a synagogue in Bergen County, New Jersey, and also the Assistant Rabbi of Central Synagogue in Manhattan. She has delivered many talks to community organizations. During her almost thirty years in congregational work, Rabbi Prinz contributed to the local Jewish community as well. In 1991, she was named "Woman of the Year" by Brandeis University National Women's Committee.

Rabbi Prinz's book, On the Chocolate Trail: A Delicious Adventure Connecting Jews, Religions, History, Travel, Rituals and Recipes to the Magic of Cacao, was published in 2013 by Jewish Lights and is already in its third printing. Rabbi Prinz lectures about chocolate and religion around the world. The book is being used in adult study, classroom settings, book clubs and chocolate tastings. Her book stirs age-old passions for chocolate and religion using information gathered from travel in several countries, including Belgium, Egypt, England, France, Israel, Italy, Mexico, Spain, Switzerland and the United States. It spans several cultures, countries, centuries, and religions, exploring how faith traditions share consumption, ritual and business interests in chocolate. You will have an opportunity to support this major event as a sponsor. Details will be presented in subsequent publications.

Education - Amy Weinstein

I love walking in to Target and seeing "Back to School" displays! I can't be the only one who gets excited about 3-prong folders on sale for a penny, right?! That being said, it's time to set the alarms, buy new binders and head back to school.

Congregation Beth Shalom's annual Open House will be held on August 23, 9am-noon. Families will have the opportunity to register for school and meet our staff. Registration packets will be sent home prior to Open House for your review. Our first day of classes will be held on August 30 with the exception of our 7th grade. Seventh grade will be meeting on Saturday, August 29 for a Rabbi-led Shabbaton.

Parents, please plan on staying on August 30 as you drop off your children. We will be having a "Welcome Back Breakfast." Karen Blanchard, Michelle McCormick and I will be available to answer questions about our school policies, curriculum and opportunities for you to be involved. See you soon!

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions/concerns/comments regarding your child's religious education at Congregation Beth Shalom.

MitzvahDay

make your mark

November 8

Planning for Mitzvah Day 2015 is underway. My name is Marla Smith, and I have accepted the awesome opportunity to plan this terrific event. This is a new experience for me, and I would love to put together a committee of temple members wanting to help plan this very worthwhile and fun day.

This is a special opportunity for the our temple as we have the chance to put ourselves out there in the community and, in our own way, help to repair a little part of this crazy world. The concept of tikkun olam emphasizes the role of human responsibility and action. Regardless of age, we are all capable of doing something.

Please join with me in helping to make our annual Mitzvah Day a huge success. As the only synagogue in Brandon, it is important for us to have a presence and for our families to have a true impact on our community. I can be contacted at marlasmith914@gmail.com or via cell at 813-546-4018. Once I hear from all of you, I will organize a planning/eating/drinking session. Thanks in advance for helping me out.

RITUAL COMMITTEE—Cynthia Goldstein

Shalom! As we approach the beginning of another Jewish year, we take time to reflect on the past year and how we have lived our lives as Jews. Our congregation continues to be a Jewish home for our community. As we move into our 26th year we look forward to our future and all that the years will bring to Beth Shalom. This year the High Holidays bring an opportunity for hospitality and building relationships. As the model set out by Abraham and Sarah, we can be a welcoming tent where new and old can experience our community in a Jewishly meaningful way.

The High Holidays are always a busy time at Beth Shalom! Included is our High Holiday schedule. I encourage you to attend the Selichot play featuring another original play acted by the Beth Shalom Players. We will again offer our full complement of services for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, including children's/family services for both holidays. Immediately following Yom Kippur we celebrate Sukkot, and then close the High Holiday season with our Simchat Torah celebration. Again this year we will be celebrating Sukkot "Under the Stars," with special activities for our youth, who we hope, will bring a friend with them as a celebration of welcoming ushpizim (guests) as part of Sukkot.

You should be receiving your High Holiday packets in the mail, where you will find additional information inside about High Holiday traditions and customs, as well as our usual materials, including information about our Tree of Life and yahrzeit plaque opportunities. Also, for those who observe Yizkor, PLEASE remember to fill out the Book of Remembrance (BOR) form and follow the instructions for returning it. Add any new names you wish to have read as part of the service. If you had names included in the Book last year, you should have had those names included with your BOR form in this year's packet. Please take a moment to check the names and spellings to ensure there are no errors (if there are, please correct and return—if there are not, please still return the form!). Copies of this form will be included in The Kibbitzer, the High Holiday packet, and can be obtained at the synagogue.

Finally, be sure to look at the upcoming weekly email blasts and our congregational Facebook page for special High Holiday information. If you have High Holiday questions or needs, please feel free to contact me as ritual chair at cgoldsteinhart@gmail.com.

Congregation Beth Shalom
of Brandon

Thanks to the generosity of

Peter & Diane Jacobson

we will celebrate the High Holydays 5776 with a beautiful new prayer book:

Mishkan HaNefesh-

A Machzor for the Days of Awe

A fully transliterated prayer book with the feel and style of our Shabbat prayer book, it will spiritually enhance and enrich our services.

Make your family a part of this exciting new beginning!

Do you need a meaningful and lasting gift for a family member or friend?

Dedicate a new High Holy Day prayer book in their honor!

We will notify them of your generosity and place a dedication bookplate in the inside front cover of the prayer book.

Each sponsorship is $36 per prayer book set (Rosh Hashanah AND Yom Kippur books—your dedication will appear in 2 books!)

Contact the temple office for more information.

August 21 is Simcha Shabbat, and Dr. Kathryn Kepes will be our guest speaker. She will speak about her work in India with Project Starfish

Project Starfish is a non-profit international organization that collaborates with healthcare providers in Southern India to provide both general medical care to rural populations, currently focusing on sustainable diabetic screening and treatment clinics. Project Starfish is about humanity—about serving the underserved—period—no profits, no dogma, and no self-interest other than seeking that live-giving feeling of warmth and accomplishment that comes with helping and uplifting others.

Donations

Congregation Beth Shalom accepts donations for many purposes, with a variety of opportunities for donors to support the good works of the Temple. You may contact the office either by phone or email to make a contribution, or head to our website to make a secure online payment through a PayPal account or by using a credit card.

Funds:

- General Fund (unrestricted): An unrestricted gift to the General Fund allows the temple to use those funds wherever they may be needed most. This fund incorporates contributions received from our High Holy Day Appeal, Yahrzeit donations, Bricklets, Adopt-A-Book, Tree of Life (unless otherwise indicated) and other non-restricted gifts.
- Building Fund: A fund to ensure the continuing physical growth of our spiritual home. Intended for capital improvements and major building repairs.
- Endowment Fund: Gifts to this fund are placed in an investment account and temporarily restricted or can be defined/restricted by the donor. This fund ensures the future of our temple.
- Religious School Scholarship Fund: These funds will be made available to Religious School students who are in need of tuition assistance, as determined confidentially by the Treasurer.
- Rabbi's Discretionary Fund: a fund for assistance to families in need, scholarship assistance, interfaith council, Holocaust museum and other endeavors at the Rabbi's discretion.

If you wish to designate a gift to a particular purpose, for example, Food Bank, Choir, Oneg, Social Action, etc., you may do so by noting as such on your payment method or with an accompanying note; otherwise, your gift will be used where it is needed most.

Opportunities:

- Adopt-A-Book: A dedication label will be placed in one of our prayer books, to commemorate a simcha or in honor or memory of a loved one for just $54.
- Bricklets: For as little as $9 you can send a Bricklet Card instead of buying a card for birthdays, condolences, etc. A Bricklet Card in your name will be sent to the person you wish stating that a donation has been made in his or her name to Beth Shalom to honor the occasion.
- Tree of Life: The Tree of Life is on the back wall of our Sanctuary. An engraved leaf or stone can commemorate many simchas, b'nai mitzvah, wedding, birth, graduations, etc. Leaves are $180, and stones are $1800.
- Yahrzeit Plaque: To honor the death of a loved one, you may purchase a plaque that will be cared for in perpetuity for $250. The name of the deceased along with their date of death is included on the plaque.

*Unless otherwise noted by you, your gift will be acknowledged in the Kibbitzer the month following its receipt.
If your donation is incorrectly listed or omitted, please notify the temple office immediately.*
