From the Rabbi

From Our Community ...

We are truly a lucky congregation. We have a lot of amazing volunteers. I have counted up those who volunteer in some way – from hosting an oneg to greeting, from working on a committee to reading torah, from helping at a Chanukah party to stepping into the kitchen at a moment's notice. The percentage of the congregation who contributes in some way – as a volunteer or a financial supporter – is remarkable. And it is crucial, because we operate with a very, very small part-time staff. Mags Oldman, our administrative director, has been a crucial member of our staff. As of Nov. 18, Mags has left the position of administrative director to pursue full-time work. We are happy for the opportunities this provides for her and her family and wish her only the best. At the same time, we acknowledge that she will be deeply missed – her warmth and creativity, her hard work and dedication to the temple way above and beyond what her formal job requires have made a true difference to us all. She has been a remarkable help to me and enabled me to be a more effective rabbi to our community. We are fortunate that she is not leaving our temple family and will continue to be our youth director, involved with many aspects of our congregation. While we are searching for a new administrator, more of our wonderful volunteers will be stepping in to help. We know you will be understanding and patient during this time of transition.

To the Jewish People ...

The Jewish calendar is a quirky thing. From a few years ago when Chanukah fell on Thanksgiving weekend to this year when the first night of Chanukah is on Dec. 24, we are constantly juggling the interface between “our” holidays and the holidays on the secular calendar. The intersection of Chanukah and Christmas provides both an opportunity and a challenge. For the many of us with non-Jewish family members, we can easily celebrate together, affirming and upholding the light and joy of our individual holidays. At the same time, we are challenged not to make Chanukah another Christmas – a yearly challenge in our commercialized world that is all the more acute when they fall on the same days. Chanukah is not the “Jewish Christmas.” Its message – the upholding of Jewish identity in a hostile environment and the miracle of light in the darkness – is far different from the joy of Jesus’ birth that is central to Christmas. And Chanukah is a relatively minor holiday in the Jewish calendar. While celebrating together, we must strive to remember the special nature of “our” holiday, and honor the unique message that Chanukah brings.

To the World at Large ...

As I write these words, we are still in the midst of post-election turbulence. This feeling seems unlikely to subside anytime soon, as the passions and ideals that animated our election for president do not simply disappear when the last vote is counted. I spoke about this very unique moment in time on the Erev Shabbat following the election. My sermon has been posted on our website, www.bethshalom-brandon.org, so that anyone who is interested can read my reflections.

FROM THE PRESIDENT - David Friedman

I'm writing this article from the Smoky Mountains. It's early Tuesday night, the 8th of November. The polls close in 48 minutes. We are on vacation just outside of Gatlinburg, Tennessee. One ear is focused on the sounds of the rushing water in the creek that runs outside our condo. My other ear is focused on the returns.

The great political divide that embraced this country affected all of us who were politically engaged. Those of us at Congregation Beth Shalom were not immune. Regardless of which presidential candidate wins tonight, one thing is certain. Life will go on. Members of Beth Shalom who are currently employed will continue to work. We, along with our retired Beth Shalom members, will continue to live our lives. We'll continue to care for our families. We'll continue to rejoice life's events. We'll continue to come together, pray together, and celebrate together.

As written in our mission statement, let's continue to be a caring community. Perhaps we should add, "Regardless of political affiliation!"

We're Everywhere

This past Sunday, Carol Anne and I hiked a few miles on the Old Sugarlands Trail, so named because of the maple syrup 19th-century farmers collected from sugar maple trees. Our plan was to walk two miles up to reach a very old cemetery. While we'd stopped to chat with another couple coming down the mountain, a single woman hiker passed us on her way up. Later, as we approached what we thought was the turnoff toward the cemetery, this same single hiker was coming toward us. She'd just come from the cemetery, and, after some small talk, she casually mentioned seeing stones on one headstone. Carol Anne spoke up and mentioned that this was a Jewish custom. She said, "I know, I am Jewish." I told her I was too. She said she knew from the shirt. I had unbuttoned my long-sleeved shirt and my UT-25 shirt was visible. You never know where we'll turn up!

I hope you and your family had a wonderful Thanksgiving.

CBS Softball Needs You!

Did you play first base in high school? Pitch? Even play right field? We need you! No pre-requisite of past play; we're just in it for fun and camaraderie.

We're recruiting our first (in-a-long-time) team to compete in the JCC Softball Tourney this spring! The co-ed team won't meet until after the first of the year, but now is the time to put the team together! Contact Dave Friedman at cbs-president@hotmail.com if you're interested!

Mensch of the Week

Kate Swedlow was recently honored as Mensch of the Week by Shalom Tampa, the e-newsletter of the Tampa Jewish Community Centers & Federation. Below is the article on Kate:

As a military wife, Kate Swedlow has lived all over the country, settling in Tampa in 2013. While Kate was not raised Jewish, she quickly got involved in the Jewish community, starting with her family's synagogue.

"We found Congregation Beth Shalom in Brandon while I was pregnant, and we converted Joseph (their son) when he was born. That was important to us. They (Beth Shalom) have been the most wonderful people. And, because I'm not working right now, I have more time right now to do more fun things."

Kate is a trial attorney, but she is currently working as a stay-at-home mom and has used the time to volunteer in the community. She is the co-chair of Beth Shalom's fundraising committee, has participated in Challah baking over the holidays and has worked with PJ Library.

"That's how I found the JCC. I was involved in the Touch a Truck planning, and I've done some PJ Playdates. It's been a good way for me to meet people and have some fun."

Kate has found volunteering to be a good way to give back to the community and find a place in the community.

"My husband is Jewish and that has been an incredibly welcoming community, with a lot of avenues to help out. I do care very much about my son's experience growing up in the Jewish faith. This is where we feel at home."

LIFELONG LEARNING—Sheila Fishman

The month of December will be quiet, but January is packed with events.

• Sunday, Jan. 8, 4 pm: The Lifelong Learning Committee of Congregation Beth Shalom of Brandon is pleased to announce that the lecture and slide program on JEWISH ART HISTORY with Susan Fader has been rescheduled. This in-depth presentation will look at Jewish art from its origins to the 16th-18th centuries and then the 1930s. We will learn about artists of victims and survivors of WWII and how their art reflects their individual experiences. The presentation will end with a look at artwork by Jewish artists of the 1950s to present time. Their art will provide an understanding of how Jewish culture and history continues to be expressed through their work. Slides of the art will be shown throughout the talk. Our presenter, Susan Fader, is a lifelong professional artist with a degree from Philadelphia College of Art. Before retiring in Florida with her husband, she owned and operated three art-related businesses. She now enjoys working as a staff art instructor in a 55+ community. In addition, she teaches art at libraries and other adult education programs.

The program will be followed by Dinner with the Tribe at Square One Burger in Brandon. Hope to see you there!!

If you are interested in attending this upcoming presentation, please contact the Congregation office at 813-681-6547 or Sheila Fishman, Lifelong Learning Chairperson, at 813-833-7843. A suggested donation of $10 is recommended.

• Thursday, Jan. 19, 6 pm: Page Turners will be meeting in the Temple Library. The book being discussed is entitled Sister of Mine; A Novel by Sabra Waldfogel. This is a historical novel about a Jewish plantation owner and his family, the life of these affluent Jews, and their slaves. A light dinner will be served by our moderator, Sheila Fishman.

• Saturday, Jan. 21, 10 am: We will be offering Bibles and Bagels and will be addressing Parashat Shemot: Moses

Ms. Donchin is the USF Hebrew Language Department Chair. She has taught a popular class "Israeli Films and Fiction" and was a longtime co-chair of the Tampa Bay Jewish Film Festival.

EDUCATION - Amy Weinstein

"If you are not a better person tomorrow than you are today, what need have you for a tomorrow?" – Rebbe Nachman of Breslov

As many of you know, I am employed by the School District of Hillsborough County. In fact, this is my 30th year working with students with special needs. During my 30-year tenure, I have worked with students as young as 3 and as old as 22 years. I have taught students in general education settings, separate classes, special day schools and in a residential facility. I have been in leadership positions for the past 18 years. As part of my role, I provide many training opportunities to teachers. I often address how to meet the needs of all students by differentiating curriculum and incorporating accommodations for students when appropriate. I will be meeting with our religious school teachers in January to share ideas, programs and strategies to enhance the learning of all students.

Last month our 1st and new 2nd graders participated in consecration. We had eight of our younger students formally introduced to Jewish learning. The same night,

CONGREGATION WISH LIST

Financially supporting the synagogue is the responsibility of the entire Jewish community so that it can continue to exist and grow for everyone, both now and in the future. Items are often "wished" for to add to our spiritual home. Below are a few of our most frequently requested items that, while not deemed necessary, would certainly enhance our environment.

While monetary donations are welcomed, encouraged, needed and can be used where the temple needs it most, we know sometimes people prefer concrete gifts and look for opportunities to provide in other ways. We hope this list is helpful. Before making an in-kind contribution, due to limited storage space, please contact the temple first to be sure the item is still on the list, or to see if we can use the item. We do not have the facility to find homes for items we can not use.

Interior Wish List:

- Large coolers
- Water supply for Cafe Shalom
- Commercial oven
- Free-standing literature stand

(floor model)

- 8—New 90" (floor length) round tablecloths in navy blue

KOLOT SHOLOM NOTES

A Rare Happening This Year

Some of us will remember the very strange occurrence on Nov. 28, 2013. That was the day we created a new holiday, Thanksgivukkah. Yes, Thanksgiving and Chanukah actually collided. Since 1888, this had only happened four times in 1888, 1899, 1918 and 2013.

According to Wikipedia, it was the result of the interception between the lunisolar Hebrew calendar and the time of the solar year, which can have between 353 and 385 days per year, and the Gregorian calendar. Because the two are not calculated the same way, Chanukah appears at a different time each year on the Gregorian calendar.

Now fast forward to this year: Chanukah will fall on Christmas Eve. That's almost a month different from the date of Thanksgivukah in 2013. Christmas and Chanukah have come together four previous times in the last century, 1918, 1921, 1959 and 2005. I don't know if this year we'll create a new celebration name like Chrismukah. What do you think? Just an interesting thought.

All of this relates to the choir how? Well, only in a peripheral way. Kolot Shalom will sing Friday, Dec. 16, ushering in the upcoming holiday and getting us into the spirit of the season. Rehearsals begin Monday, Dec. 5.

Please come and join us for our next Choir Shabbat on Friday, Dec. 16.

*Shalom,
Joan E. Frankel*

DONATIONS

Congregation Beth Shalom accepts donations for many purposes, with a variety of opportunities for donors to support the good works of the Temple. You may contact the office either by phone or email to make a contribution, or head to our website to make a secure online payment through a PayPal account or by using a credit card.

Funds:

- General Fund (unrestricted): An unrestricted gift to the General Fund allows the temple to use those funds wherever they may be needed most. This fund incorporates contributions received from our High Holy Day Appeal, Yahrzeit donations, Bricklets, Adopt-A-Book, Tree of Life (unless otherwise indicated) and other non-restricted gifts.
- Building Fund: A fund to ensure the continuing physical growth of our spiritual home. Intended for capital improvements and major building repairs.
- Endowment Fund: Gifts to this fund are placed in an investment account and temporarily restricted or can be defined/restricted by the donor. This fund ensures the future of our temple.
- Religious School Scholarship Fund: These funds will be made available to Religious School students who are in need of tuition assistance, as determined confidentially by the Treasurer.
- Rabbi's Discretionary Fund: a fund for assistance to families in need, scholarship assistance, interfaith council, Holocaust museum and other endeavors at the Rabbi's discretion.
- Youth Group Fund: a fund that supports the ongoing engagement of post b'nai mitzvah youth, providing meaningful and fun experiences for our teens, and keeping them connected to their Jewish community.

If you wish to designate a gift to a particular purpose, for example, Food Bank, Choir, Oneg, Social Action, etc., you may do so by noting as such on your payment method or with an accompanying note; otherwise, your gift will be used where it is needed most.

Opportunities:

- Adopt-A-Book: A dedication label will be placed in one of our prayer books, to commemorate a simcha or in honor or memory of a loved one for just $54.
- Bricklets: For as little as $9 you can send a Bricklet Card instead of buying a card for birthdays, condolences, etc. A Bricklet Card in your name will be sent to the person you wish stating that a donation has been made in his or her name to Beth Shalom to honor the occasion.
- Tree of Life: The Tree of Life is on the back wall of our Sanctuary. An engraved leaf or stone can commemorate many simchas, b'nai mitzvah, wedding, birth, graduations, etc. Leaves are $180, and stones are $1800.
- Yahrzeit Plaque: To honor the death of a loved one, you may purchase a plaque that will be cared for in perpetuity for $250. The name of the deceased along with their date of death is included on the plaque.

*Unless otherwise noted by you, your gift will be acknowledged in the Kibbitzer the month following its receipt.
If your donation is incorrectly listed or omitted, please notify the temple office immediately.*

The dates listed for the Yahrzeits are adjusted yearly according to the Jewish Calendar and may not necessarily coincide with the common date of death. Names are read for Kaddish at the Shabbat before the actual date. If you would like to have the common date listed, please contact the temple office.
