Making Your Road Trips Jewish

As many of you know, I spend a lot of time in the car. I live in Pinellas County and it takes me about an hour each way to get to Congregation Beth Shalom. A few years ago I resolved to try to make my time in the car more than just a chore; to find a way to breathe, relax and learn. I strive to pay particular attention while driving over the bridge to the beautiful sparkling water that I am so fortunate to see every day. I often see rainbows and I always notice the moon driving home. I relax by listening to books.

While it took me a while to get used to this, it is now a part of my weekly ritual that sometimes even makes me look forward to getting in the car. And I have become a dedicated and devoted listener to podcasts – an amazing way to continue to learn and keep up with Jewish events. If you are going on a road trip – or plan to garden, hike, exercise or cook this summer – consider these excellent Jewish podcasts (all in English) to keep you company.

1. Israel Story is my favorite. It will sound familiar to those who listen to the NPR podcast, This American Life. It is the Israel version of TAL- modern stories, often told by real Israelis about daily life. It is non-political in nature and the beautiful true stories will draw you closer to Israel, the land and the people. Available on iTunes. For more Israel oriented podcasts, go to <http://tlv1.fm/podcasts/>. Covering politics, the arts, music- even a great Hebrew language program – this is a varied assortment of fascinating programs, some with a particular political slant. The wonderful on-line Israeli news source, The Times of Israel, also offers a podcast.
2. Tablet Magazine defines itself as a “daily online magazine of Jewish news, ideas, and culture.” It offers very diverse and wide-ranging articles from a great variety of authors. You can subscribe to the online magazine; its podcast, which has the same mission, is called Vox Tablet and can be accessed through the Tablet website: <http://www.tabletmag.com/podcasts>
3. If you are looking for more in-depth Jewish learning, the podcasts offered by the Shalom Hartman institute are excellent. They provide lectures by noted Jewish thinkers – many about topics related to Israel, but also about holidays, Jewish belief and Jewish ideas. The podcasts can be found on their website – www.hartman.org.il or accessed through itunes.
4. Finally, if you want a weekly update on the Torah portion as you are driving home from work or winding down on Friday night, listen to the brief (10 minutes or less), On the Other Hand by Rabbi Rick Jacobs, president of the Union for Reform Judaism. A great way to get in the spirit of Shabbat and keep up with the cycle of Torah. Accessible through iTunes or at <http://www.reformjudaism.org/learning/podcasts>

Let me know if you listen to any of these – or discover any new ones that I can add to my drive time list!

From the President - Jeff Newman

By now you are enjoying a summer vacation that was planned months ago. Or possibly, last week? Maybe your vacation is coming up shortly? Wherever your plans take you, even if it is to stay in town, I'll say to you what my Mother used to say to me during the summer months, "Either build your mind, or build your body." I know she was telling me, in a nice way, to "get out of the house," but what she was actually expressing has turned out to be her philosophy in life. That is, keep moving, be productive, do something.

My Mother turns 90 this November. Yes, she has shoulder pain, and knee pain, and walks with the aid of a cane, but she keeps going. She's actively involved in Hadassah, she's on the board of her local HOA, and is the designated driver when she and "the girls" go out to dinner. I live by her philosophy.

Growing up, I was a huge fan of the Peanuts gang. The Peanuts creator, Charles M. Schultz, also had a philosophy well worth exploring.

He would ask you to think about these questions:

1. Name the five wealthiest people in the world.
2. Name the last five Heisman trophy winners.
3. Name the last five winners of the Miss America pageant.
4. Name ten people who have won the Nobel Prize.
5. Name the last decade's worth of World Series winners.

Did you get them all right? Probably not.

None of us remember the headliners of yesterday. These are not second-rate achievers; they are the best in their fields. But the applause dies. Awards tarnish, and achievements are forgotten.

Now, think about these questions:

1. List a few teachers who aided your journey through school.
2. Name three friends who have helped you through a difficult time.
3. Name five people who have taught you something worthwhile.
4. Think of a few people who have made you feel appreciated and special.
5. Think of five people you enjoy spending time with.

Wasn't this easier? Here's his lesson:

The people who make a difference in your life are not the ones with the most credentials, the most money, or the most rewards. They simply are the ones who care the most!

I'll leave you with this: Those that matter, don't care. Those who care, don't matter.

Lifelong Learning—Sheila Fishman

Your Lifelong Learning Committee met for its first planning session on June 7 and I am so excited about the upcoming year.

As you already know, Page Turners will continue to meet on the third Monday of every other month beginning with September 19, 2016 at 6:00 p.m. Phyllis Newman will be leading the discussion. Bibles and Bagels will be offered on four Shabbat mornings with the first program being held on September 10 at 10:00 a.m. Come with an appetite for the body and soul. Additionally, Rabbi will be offering a year long series of discussions on several contemporary issues including a year long discussion on Jewish Values and the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict. New programming will include Hebrew for Adults presented by Rudina Richter on five Sunday mornings in September through October of this year. The first session will be on September 11 9:45 a.m. - 11:45 a.m.

Additionally, special emphasis for this year is being placed on the relationship of Jews in the Arts. We are so excited to announce several informative and entertaining events, which include a program to enhance our Understanding of Jewish Music in the Spring, a discussion on Jewish Film in January 2017, and a program on the Art of Jewish Foods. We also hope to present an evening of Jewish humor for your entertainment.

The year of Jews in the Arts will open with a presentation by Susan Fader on Sunday, September 11 at 4:00 p.m. Ms. Fader will be providing a chronological examination of Jewish Art History beginning with a look at the origins of Jewish art examining Ceremonial Objects, Mosaics, Haggadah and Illuminated Manuscripts since the second Temple. Ms Fader will also look at work created by artists from the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries. Then, her focus turns to the 1930s. We will learn about artists of victims and survivors of WWII, and how the art reflects their individual experiences. The program will end with a look at artwork by Jewish artists of the 1950s to the present time which will provide an understanding of how Jewish culture and history continues to be expressed through their work. A slide presentation will be offered throughout the talk.

Ms. Fader is the daughter of Holocaust survivors. After coming to America, her parents became art dealers and collectors, and Ms. Fader grew up surrounded by paintings and sculptures. She is a lifelong professional artist who attended Rhode Island School of Design and has a degree from the Philadelphia College of Art. Before retiring to Florida, she, with her husband, owned and operated 3 art related businesses. She now serves as a staff art instructor in a 55+community and teaches at libraries and at other adult education programs.

Please support our programming by attending our presentations. Also, if you have any interest in planning for one of these special events or several events, we would look forward to your participation. Contact Sheila Fishman, at gold17@verizon.net or at 813-833-7843.

KOLOT SHOLOM NOTES

There is grief. There is silence. There is sadness for what could have been. There is conflict. There is mourning in our family. I contemplate sitting shiva.

In so many ways, this feels like a memorial for a lost era. There are few survivors who can relate those distant years. What sadness has occurred? Who was affected?

The event happened following Kristallnacht. Shot down in its prime, this uniquely cultural phase of Jewish history was disturbed for all time. Our Jewish community lost so much on that night, and yet this one event has been greatly overlooked.

The event I am speaking of is the loss of the great Jewish Organs, Organ Composers and Organists of the 1930's and 40's.

"So what?" many Jews say. "The organ was only an instrument of the Christian Church, an instrument that Jews in Germany used to help them feel more like their neighbors and countryman."

Not so, my dear loved ones. The Jewish Organ had an earlier past before the Christian Churches, and it had a wealth of repertoire that expanded like that of the Church for many years. In addition, let's not forget the many Jewish Organists and Composers who were sent to the concentration camps or emigrated to a land that had no need of their talents.

When I first joined Congregation B'nai Israel in Bridgeport, Connecticut, I joined as a member and later as the Temple Organist for a short period of time. I thrilled to the sound of the organ accompaniment along with the voice of our well-known Cantor, Ramon Gilbert. The music had the nuances of Jewish modes led by a Cantor that brought us close to the feet of the Holy One.

So what happened to our Organ and Choral music? How has congregational choir music been affected? Two years ago, at Mifgash, I was able to have this discussion with many Temple Musicians. However, there was not an in-depth workshop. So I feel we only circled the subject.

In the next month, I will engage in a process of investigation. I hope you will also research this matter. I'm sure this will lead to an enriched congregational discussion. I would appreciate your remembrances as well.

Shalom,
Joan Frankel, Kolot Shalom Director

CBS wish list

Congregation Beth Shalom exists today because of its congregants and the love and support they provide. In turn, the synagogue provides worship opportunities, holiday celebrations, social activities, life cycle observances, education for adults and children and a place one can turn to in a time of need. It is a beacon of hope for those searching out a spiritual home and a part of the fabric of life for those who frequently attend services and activities. Congregation Beth Shalom congregants are there to celebrate the happy times and provide support and caring during the sad times for all of our CBS family.

Financially supporting the synagogue is the responsibility of the entire Jewish community so that it can continue to exist and grow for everyone, both now and in the future. We strive to keep our expenses frugal and necessary, but as we grow in numbers, the numbers of dollars do not necessarily grow congruently and additional items are often "wished" for to add to our spiritual home. Below are a few of our most frequently requested items that, while not deemed necessary, would certainly enhance our environment:

Interior Wish List:

- 2 small curtain rods
- Large coolers
- Water supply for Cafe Shalom
- Commercial oven
- Free standing literature stand (floor model)
- 8—New 90" (floor length) round tablecloths in navy blue
- 8—New 90" (floor length) round tablecloths in white
- 1" binders
- Keyboard drawers

Exterior Wish List:

- Cypress mulch (to refresh)
- Planters, soil and vines for pergola
- Wood sealer for outdoor elements
- Awnings for entries

Making donations of these items or similar (referred to as in-kind) has been a regular practice of our temple family and it is because of the past and continued generosity of our congregants that we are able to continue to thrive. While monetary donations are always welcome, encouraged, and needed and can be used where the temple needs it most, we know that sometimes people prefer concrete gifts and look for opportunities to provide in other ways. We hope that this list is helpful for you. Before making an in-kind contribution, due to very limited space for storage, please contact the temple first to be sure that the item is still on the list, or if it is not, if the temple has room or need of the item.

JCC Camp Registration is now OPEN!

It's CAMP time at the JCC! We are looking forward to another fun filled, adventurous summer.

Donations

Congregation Beth Shalom accepts donations for many purposes, with a variety of opportunities for donors to support the good works of the Temple. You may contact the office either by phone or email to make a contribution, or head to our website to make a secure online payment through a PayPal account or by using a credit card.

Funds:

- General Fund (unrestricted): An unrestricted gift to the General Fund allows the temple to use those funds wherever they may be needed most. This fund incorporates contributions received from our High Holy Day Appeal, Yahrzeit donations, Bricklets, Adopt-A-Book, Tree of Life (unless otherwise indicated) and other non-restricted gifts.
- Building Fund: A fund to ensure the continuing physical growth of our spiritual home. Intended for capital improvements and major building repairs.
- Endowment Fund: Gifts to this fund are placed in an investment account and temporarily restricted or can be defined/restricted by the donor. This fund ensures the future of our temple.
- Religious School Scholarship Fund: These funds will be made available to Religious School students who are in need of tuition assistance, as determined confidentially by the Treasurer.
- Rabbi's Discretionary Fund: a fund for assistance to families in need, scholarship assistance, interfaith council, Holocaust museum and other endeavors at the Rabbi's discretion.
- Youth Group Fund: a fund that supports the ongoing engagement of post b'nai mitzvah youth, providing meaningful and fun experiences for our teens, and keeping them connected to their Jewish community.

If you wish to designate a gift to a particular purpose, for example, Food Bank, Choir, Oneg, Social Action, etc., you may do so by noting as such on your payment method or with an accompanying note; otherwise, your gift will be used where it is needed most.

Opportunities:

- Adopt-A-Book: A dedication label will be placed in one of our prayer books, to commemorate a simcha or in honor or memory of a loved one for just $54.
- Bricklets: For as little as $9 you can send a Bricklet Card instead of buying a card for birthdays, condolences, etc. A Bricklet Card in your name will be sent to the person you wish stating that a donation has been made in his or her name to Beth Shalom to honor the occasion.
- Tree of Life: The Tree of Life is on the back wall of our Sanctuary. An engraved leaf or stone can commemorate many simchas, b'nai mitzvah, wedding, birth, graduations, etc. Leaves are $180, and stones are $1800.
- Yahrzeit Plaque: To honor the death of a loved one, you may purchase a plaque that will be cared for in perpetuity for $250. The name of the deceased along with their date of death is included on the plaque.

*Unless otherwise noted by you, your gift will be acknowledged in the Kibbitzer the month following its receipt.
If your donation is incorrectly listed or omitted, please notify the temple office immediately.*

Donations listed below were received between May 16 and June 15.
