FROM THE RABBI - Rabbi Paul Schreiber, Reb Tuviah

The Awesome Dual Message of Chanukah!

Chanukah is a complex holiday. At the heart of all the themes, however, is the actual name of the holiday, Chanukah. The word comes from the Hebrew word “dedication” or “rededication,” as in chanukat hamikdash, the “Rededication of the Temple” which the Maccabees undertook after their victory over the Syrian-Greeks. This ‘rededication’ was both a physical one and a spiritual one. Throughout the years of the Syrian-Greeks’ occupation of Judea, the Temple stood at the forefront of their struggle. It symbolized the heart of what they were fighting for: the right to serve G-d according to their own laws and traditions. Theirs was a struggle over the purity of the Temple service which represented the purity and integrity of Jewish life. In fact, the Rambam begins his description of the events of Chanukah by describing the efforts to claim religious independence from foreign influence as the primary message of Chanukah. This brings us to the second definition of “Chanukah” – “chinuch”, the term used for Jewish education. The process of Torah education - for both children and adults - is a constant ‘rededication’ of our souls, chanukat haneshama, through the light of Torah study.

Chanukah, therefore, presents us with a double message: Chanukat Habayit & Chanukat Haneshama. It reminds us the synagogue/sanctuary is more than just a place of prayer. It is the spiritual center of our community. Our efforts to ‘rededicate’ ourselves to Jewish life must reconnect us with our synagogue, both physically and spiritually. Chanukah reminds us the most substantial and important way to achieve this rededication is through the light of Torah learning, chinuch, on all levels – children and adults alike.

This is Congregation Beth Shalom, this is our temple. If we want to make sure it is vibrant, we also need to make sure that its needs are maintained. Who better than the Maccabees understood that for the Temple to function it must be rededicated, cleaned, and beautified, so that the people could embrace Jewish life with pride? The second focus is a review of the many chinuch opportunities available to us as a community. We know of the tremendous efforts under way to revitalize our various committees as well as our religious school, but we must also lead by example, and dedicate ourselves to the mitzvah of personal commitment to Torah learning. To that effort we would do well to devote a good portion of our time reexamining the inner workings of our various committees in order to more effectively address the many needs of our temple, all from a Torah perspective.

At this time of “Chanukah” – renewal and rededication, I would like to challenge all of us to seize this opportunity – to ‘renew’ our temple and to ‘renew’ our spirit by actively engaging in CBS, monetarily supporting our temple, focusing on joining a committee, telling others about our incredible family and inviting them to a service, albeit mostly virtual, and by taking advantage of the varied learning opportunities that are free to CBS members.

This is the ‘dual’ message of Chanukah – “Chanukat Habayit” and “Chanukat Haneshama”, rededication of our Sanctuary, and of our souls. May this be the year of Chanukah - “Chanukat Habayit” and “Chanukat Haneshama” for all!

L'Shalom, Reb Tuviah

FROM THE PRESIDENT - Steve Slavkin

I am borrowing an idea that Dave Friedman expressed four years ago. It expresses my thoughts currently.

The great political divide that embraced this country has affected all of us who are politically engaged. Those of us at Congregation Beth Shalom are not immune. Regardless of which presidential candidate you have supported, one thing is certain. Life will go on. We will continue to live our lives. We will continue to care for our families. We will continue to rejoice in life's events. We will continue to come together, pray together, and celebrate together.

As written in our mission statement, let's continue to be a caring community. Perhaps we should add, "Regardless of political affiliation!"

Thank you, Dave, for expressing it so well.

We are truly a lucky congregation. We have a lot of amazing volunteers. I have counted those who volunteer in some way – from working on committees, to reading Torah, to cleaning up our sanctuary after our new roof was installed, to helping set up for outdoor services. The percentage of the congregation who contributes in some way – as a volunteer or a financial supporter – is remarkable. And it is really important because we operate with an exceedingly small staff.

Jenny Allen, our administrative director, has been crucial in keeping our congregation running smoothly. Jenny has decided to cut back to part time and will soon be leaving the position of administrative director. We are happy for the opportunities this provides for her and her family and wish her only the best. At the same time, we acknowledge she will be deeply missed – her warmth and creativity, her hard work and dedication to the temple way above and beyond what her formal job requires, have made a true difference to us all. She has been a remarkable help to me, and to Congregation Beth Shalom. We have been fortunate to have her as part of our community for so many years.

Toby Koch is leading a group of our wonderful volunteers who will be stepping in to help keep our office running. We know you will be understanding and patient during this time of transition.

"We do things better when we do them together."

December Oneg Schedule

There can be no joy without food and drink. — Talmud, Mo'ed Katan

We hope you and your family are doing well.

The Oneg Committee has not scheduled oneg hosts for the month of December.

Since the temple has been closed for more than three months, we are waiting for our executive board to notify us as soon as they are able to determine at which time they feel it is safe to re-open the synagogue.

We are considering a plan to have "virtual oneg hosts." Please let us know if you are interested in this opportunity to honor a special person or date in your life.

If you have any questions or are interested in hosting an oneg, please contact us (Judith 856-816-2174, and Anna 707-628-5399).

DINNER WITH THE TRIBE — Anita Clifford

Wednesday, Dec. 2, 6:30 p.m.

I thought we might try something different this time. A Holocaust survivor is having a virtual talk. It's sponsored by Florida Holocaust Museum and the Hillsborough County Public Library Cooperative. Let's listen to this story and we can talk about it afterward while having a bite or a drink.

Don't forget to register for the program! Details and information is below.

After the talk we'll chat too, and I'll send the link later.

Meet Marie—Holocaust Survivor

Wednesday, Dec. 2, at 6:30 p.m., The Florida Holocaust Museum and the Hillsborough County Public Library Cooperative will host a virtual program with Holocaust survivor Marie Silverman. Marie will tell her story, which includes her life in hiding, internment, escape, and emigration. The talk will be followed by audience Q&A.

Marie Silverman (née Berkovic): Marie was born in 1931 and lived with her sister Jeannette and their parents in Antwerp, Belgium when World War II began. After Germany invaded Belgium, the family escaped to France. For a while, non-Jews hid them on a farm, but when the roundups began, the family was captured and separated: the sisters with their mother were placed in an internment camp at Rivesaltes, France, while their father was sent to a different camp. After nine months, Marie's and Jeannette's mother managed to smuggle her daughters out of Rivesaltes. They were hiding with other refugees in Vence, France. They were then briefly reunited with the parents who managed to escape, but the father soon died as a result of the mistreatment he had endured in the camp. Two partisan couriers took the sisters across the Pyrénées Mountains on foot from Vence to Barcelona, Spain. Marie and Jeannette lived with their aunt and uncle and then came to the United States. Once here, they were placed in an orphanage and with foster families until their mother was able to reunite with them in 1949.

Kudos & Mazels

Join with CBS in offering congratulations and recognition to the following members on their accomplishments:

KUDOS

- Kudos to all those who are attending Reb Tuviah's Adult Ed classes on Tuesday night. We are really being challenged but we're hanging in there and learning so much about our ancient writings. Torah learning is truly good for the soul!
- Kudos to all our students for finishing the first quarter of school in this challenging time.
- Kudos to Jacob Garbett for advancing to the high school regional swim meet in 2 relays and 1 individual race.
- Kudos to Reb Tuviah, Mark Finke, and Michael Lubin who planned our Veteran's Day service.

Do you know a CBS member who should be congratulated for a special accomplishment? If so, email the name and accomplishment to cbs-admin@hotmail.com.

Help Wanted

You can receive a $400 credit on your annual dues.

The Congregation Beth Shalom board of directors is offering up to two members each a $400 credit off their annual dues in exchange for volunteer work.

We are currently looking for one or two volunteers to come into the temple twice a month to do general cleaning in the interior of the building. This will help keep the congregation clean and ready as services begin opening up.

This program is being developed to encourage volunteerism and looking to be implemented soon. Anyone interested in this opportunity or would like more details, please contact our treasurer, Suzie Baylis at all4suzie@gmail.com.

THE LIBRARY CORNER — Sandy Saviet

This month I am continuing my list of recommended books taken from Moment Magazine and its “Must Read Books to be an Educated Jew.” This month’s selections are:

Two books recommended by Michael Twitty, who is an African-American Jewish writer, culinary historian and educator. They are “Judaisms: A Twenty-First-Century Introduction to Jews and Jewish Identities” written by Aaron J. Hahn Tapper, and “The Jewish Moral Virtues” written by Eugene Borowitz and Frances Schwartz.

“The Poetry of Yehuda Amichai” by Robert Alter is recommended by Edward Hirsch and Evgeny Kissin.

“The Human Condition” by Hannah Arendt is recommended by Judith Shulevitz.

And the last selection this month is: “Pioneers and Homemakers-Jewish Women in Pre-State Israel” which is edited by Deborah S. Bernstein. It was recommended by Shulamit Reinharz, who was a sociology professor at Brandeis, and founding director of the Hadassah-Brandeis Institute.

I wish all of our readers a Happy Chanukah and a safe New Year’s Eve.

HIGH HOLIDAYS

High Holiday Appeal Drive Ongoing Thru January

Our annual High Holiday pledge drive is ongoing.

Our annual High Holiday appeal is a vital component in supporting Congregation Beth Shalom and its mission to provide a historic center of Jewish Life serving Eastern Hillsborough County.

This past year we have been financially challenged by the cost of our new roof and COVID-19, and we need your help.

A few anonymous donors have already stepped up. They have agreed to match dollar for dollar every amount pledged in this year's Kol Nidre Appeal up to $15,000. If you have not made a meaningful pledge, please consider making one, and if you have already made your pledge

We are still also accepting donations for our congregation food bank. Please bring your non-perishable items or pet food to Simchat Torah or Sukkot, or call the temple office to arrange a time to drop off your items.

please give some thought to increasing it.

Every dollar pledged will raise two dollars toward our $30,000 goal. You can click here to donate <https://secure.acceptiva.com/?cst=4w4Z6D>.

Thank you for your support.

COLLEGE CONNECTION

Congregation Beth Shalom wants to wish all of our college students a successful year!

Whether this is their first year away from home or they are ready to graduate, CBS wants our college students to know we are thinking of them throughout the year.

College Connection is open to all former and current members with students 18-23 years old.

To participate, please complete the form below for each college-age student in your family and email it to CBSMembership@hotmail.com.

LIFELONG LEARNING — Janice Perelman

Life Long Learning Continues ...

Although modified in scope, just like everything has been during this pandemic, Life Long Learning continues to try to establish learning opportunities for you. Reb Tuviah has presented a series of interesting presentations during the month of November in his own inimitable style.

No matter what is happening in the world, we all still need to eat. With that in mind, how's about starting a "CBS Foods Network" cooking class? Nancy Schreiber has volunteered to teach us how to bake challah to start us off. What recipe would you like to teach, one which could take not more than 1 hour, on zoom? You can e-mail me at chinadolljp@verizon.net, or call me at (813) 748-8042, and we will discuss details. I will be learning how to operate zoom right along with you. We could start classes in January, and you can have input into selecting your date.

The Lifelong Learning Committee currently consists of the following members: Sheryl Finke, Steven Feldman, Gerald Pliner, Caren Magdovitz, Anita Clifford, and Christine Stockelman. Please feel free to add your name to this list. To join, please write to chinadolljp@verizon.net or call (813) 748-8042.

I look forward to hearing from you and to learning how to prepare some fabulous foods.

Janice Perelman, chairperson

Monday, Jan. 18, at 7 p.m., Page Turners will meet to discuss "The Takeaway Men" by Meryl Ain.

With the cloud of the Holocaust still looming over them, twin sisters Bronka and Johanna Lubinski and their parents arrive in the U.S. from a Displaced Persons Camp. In the years after World War II, they experience the difficulties of adjusting to American culture as well as the burgeoning fear of the Cold War. Years later, the discovery of a former Nazi hiding in their community brings the Holocaust out of the shadows. As the girls get older, they start to wonder about their parents' pasts, and they begin to demand answers. But it soon becomes clear that those memories will be more difficult and painful to uncover than they could have anticipated.

Poignant and haunting, "The Takeaway Men" explores the impact of immigration, identity, prejudice, secrets, and lies on parents and children in mid-twentieth-century America.

Watch the eBlast for a Zoom link for this event.

EDUCATION

Chanukah Events

▪ Friday, Dec. 11, at 7:30 p.m., join us for Channukah and Shabbat on the Back Lawn.

Please bring your menorah and three candles. Please plan to arrive early so we have time to set up our menorahs.

▪ Sunday, Dec. 13, from 10 a.m. to noon, our religious school will host a Channukah celebration for students.

We are so excited to begin another school year at Congregation Beth Shalom and we hope the children are just as excited! Our religious school will meet on Sundays at 10 a.m.

For now, and in the interest of everyone's safety, we will be meeting virtually via Zoom. Let's get ready for a great year at CBS!

Due to COVID-19, please check the eblast for the most current information and details.

If you are interested in enrolling your child in our religious school program, please contact Reb Tuviah directly at rebtuviah@gmail.com.

CBS Adult Education

Are You Smarter Than a Hebrew Schooler Level 1, 2, and 3?

This eight-week course is only $18!

We will be meeting in person and at the congregation. Day and times will be announced after CBS reopens our doors.

Sign up by contacting Jenny, our CBS administrator. You can reach the temple office at 813-681-6547 or email cbs-admin@hotmail.com.

CONFIRMATION

Calling all teens who want to continue to explore their growth and knowledge of Judaism, Jewish thought, and Jewish life!

Plans are now under way with Reb Tuviah to meet with our confirmation students, youth group members, and any interested teens ages 13-16 effective with the 2020-21 school year. We are considering meeting monthly, but no specific dates have been identified.

Topics being considered for these meetings could include:

- how to address modern issues within the text of Jewish law,
- ethical practices,
- the place of Israel in our lives,
- anti-Semitism and racism, and
- other religions.

However, we welcome any suggestions from our youth or their parents.

With your help, the curriculum can be exciting and interesting –and we hope to provide further conversations within families about Judaism and Jewish life.

If you have any suggestions for this program, please reach out to Reb Tuviah at rebtuviah@gmail.com or the temple office.

Bar/Bat Mitzvah Information

TUTORING: Bar/Bat Mitzvah tutoring is available. Contact Reb Tuviah to make an appointment and set a date. Michael Lubin is available for all your tutoring requests.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: If you would like to have information on your child's upcoming Bar or Bat Mitzvah listed in The Kibbitzer, please submit an article and picture (digital if possible) to thekibbitzer@hotmail.com by the second Friday of the month prior to your service.

SOCIAL ACTION — Judith Pliner

At our first Shabbark Shalom Service held in October, the social action committee collected donations of food, treats, and toys for pets. The drive was very successful, and the items collected will be donated to an animal shelter. Thanks to all who donated items for this worthy cause.

The fundraising, ritual, and social action committees are sponsoring a Chanukah Bazaar on Sunday, Dec. 6, under a canopy on the temple grounds from 10 a.m. to noon. We will be collecting gift cards, and new or slightly used item that we can gift to children from families suffering under financial distress. Please come out and show your support. More details about this event can be found on page 5.

Funds:

- General Fund (unrestricted): An unrestricted gift to the General Fund allows the temple to use those funds wherever they may be needed most. This fund incorporates contributions received from our High Holy Day Appeal, Yahrzeit donations, Bricklets, Adopt-A-Book, Tree of Life (unless otherwise indicated) and other non-restricted gifts.
- Building Fund: A fund to ensure the continuing physical growth of our spiritual home. Intended for capital improvements and major building repairs.
- Endowment Fund: Gifts to this fund are placed in an investment account and temporarily restricted or can be defined/restricted by the donor. This fund ensures the future of our temple.
- Religious School Scholarship Fund: These funds will be made available to Religious School students who are in need of tuition assistance, as determined confidentially by the Treasurer.
- Rabbi's Discretionary Fund: a fund for assistance to families in need, scholarship assistance, interfaith council, Holocaust museum and other endeavors at the Rabbi's discretion.
- Youth Group Fund: a fund that supports the ongoing engagement of post b'nai mitzvah youth, providing meaningful and fun experiences for our teens, and keeping them connected to their Jewish community.

If you wish to designate a gift to a particular purpose, for example, Food Bank, Choir, Oneg, Social Action, etc., you may do so by noting as such on your payment method or with an accompanying note; otherwise, your gift will be used where it is needed most.

Opportunities:

- Adopt-A-Book: A dedication label will be placed in one of our prayer books, to commemorate a simcha or in honor or memory of a loved one for just $54.
- Bricklets: For as little as $9 you can send a Bricklet Card instead of buying a card for birthdays, condolences, etc. A Bricklet Card in your name will be sent to the person you wish stating that a donation has been made in his or her name to Beth Shalom to honor the occasion.
- Tree of Life: The Tree of Life is on the back wall of our Sanctuary. An engraved leaf or stone can commemorate many simchas, b'nai mitzvah, wedding, birth, graduations, etc. Leaves are $180, and stones are $1800.
- Yahrzeit Plaque: To honor the death of a loved one, you may purchase a plaque that will be cared for in perpetuity for $350. The name of the deceased along with their date of death is included on the plaque.

*Unless otherwise noted by you, your gift will be acknowledged in The Kibbitzer the month following its receipt.
If your donation is incorrectly listed or omitted, please notify the temple office immediately.*

Donations listed below were received between October 16 and November 15.

Simchat Shabbat!

Come celebrate your birthday or anniversary with us! A special Shabbat service is held every month to honor all our joys for that month. For this month it will be:

Dec. 18

The dates listed for the Yahrzeits are adjusted yearly according to the Jewish Calendar and may not necessarily coincide with the common date of death. Names are read for Kaddish at the Shabbat before the actual date. If you would like to have the common date listed, please contact the temple office.

Babysitters

Contact the temple office for a list of available babysitters. Contact information, qualifications and transportation details are available for each sitter. We will not publish information about our younger members online due to privacy concerns.

ATTENTION! We send The Kibbitzer out online. This change has been made to help decrease one of our expenses at Beth Shalom.

However, if you prefer receiving your Kibbitzer via the US Mail, please call the Temple at (813) 681-6547 or e-mail the Temple (cbs-admin@hotmail.com) to tell us you do not want to get your Kibbitzer online. Please help Beth Shalom cut its expenses and receive your Kibbitzer sooner.

Thank You.
