FROM THE RABBI - Rabbi Paul Schreiber, Reb Tuviah

Reflections From Sea And Land

As the Passover season is now complete, our rabbis teach us that each one of us must have also experienced our individual splitting of the sea. The earth is comprised of oceans and continents, sea and dry land. The difference between the two is: On dry land, all is open and visible. The trees, animals, mountains and people that occupy it are all easily recognizable. The sea, on the other hand, is a big blue expanse of mystery. Though the sea is teeming with life, when you look at it you can identify nothing; all is hidden beneath the surface.

So it is with a person. Our personality has two layers: our sea and our land. What we know of ourselves; our visible strengths, our tested talents and our known abilities, the elements of our character we are aware of - these comprise the "dry land" of our personality. But below the surface of our character lies a vast sea of latent talents, inner strengths and untapped abilities that we never knew we had. In the depth of our soul lies a reserve of dormant energy waiting to be discovered. This is our "sea," and even we ourselves are unaware of what lies there. We must split our personal sea and uncover our true potential and then like the Jewish people who crossed the sea more than 3,000 years ago, we too will burst forth in joyous song.

This is the beauty of the Passover season. A time to truly reflect where we are in this stage of our lives. The high holidays of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are still a few months away but I believe now is a wonderful time to start that period of introspection; that time of splitting that "sea" in order to "see" what is at the heart of who we truly are as a people.

Over the past six months I've conducted adult ed classes almost every Tuesday evening. For those who participated, it has been, and continues to be, a truly enlightening experience as we discuss Torah principles and learn how our ancient stories relate to the very lives we live today.

It is vital that Congregation Beth Shalom be a place of personal enlightenment and growth. CBS is where the Torah is examined, discussed, argued about, and celebrated each and every Shabbat. This is the Jewish way ... after all, we are Yisrael, G-d wrestlers. I urge the entire CBS family to dive in and take hold of all the beauty, richness and joy our Torah holds for us. It is ours, it is our heritage; we were given it at Sinai. It is now up to each one of us as to what role we want it to play in our lives. So go for it ... dive in and take hold!

*L'Shalom,
Reb Tuviah*

We are now OPEN for Friday night services. Events will also be live-streamed. Please check the eBlast for the latest information and details.

FROM THE PRESIDENT - Gerry Pliner

We have reached the end of Passover once again. Thousands of years ago, this tradition started and each year it ends to start again in the following year. It shows the resilience of the Jewish faith, the Jewish traditions.

I was reminded of this when I attended indoor Shabbat services with Reb Tuviah on April 2. He reminded us the Jewish people have faced many struggles through history. The destruction of the second temple in Jerusalem, the Spanish Inquisition, the Holocaust, wars in the Middle East and a pandemic. Yet somehow, we survive.

Rabbi discussed with the congregation the possible reasons why, and there were some good discussions. All good reasons, and I would like to share you mine:

It is the struggle itself that is most important, we strive to be more than we are, better than we are. It doesn't matter if we don't reach our ultimate goal. The effort yields its own rewards.

I have seen people faced with many challenges in life and some seem so insurmountable no one ever faults them for giving up or quitting. Yet we are so overwhelmed with joy when we see someone "beat the odds" and overcome these challenges. We are impressed, amazed and in our own hearts feel hopeful.

This month of May, we have our annual meeting. In the past four years, our congregation has greatly changed. Rabbis and members have come and gone, but our faith and traditions still continue.

Shakespeare said "The miserable have no other medicine than hope." The fact the Jewish people struggle and overcome, shows that hope can be a powerful medicine able to heal the wounds in the fight to survive.

Next month we start a new fiscal year with a new board of directors. What will the year bring? Well, the past is the only light with which we can see the future. Our Jewish traditions guide us, the actions of our ancestors show us how the impossible is possible. Friends have come and gone and new friends will arrive at our door. Our temple doors will remain open to accept new families and they will make our congregation family stronger.

Being of limited means doesn't mean limited dreams. The truth is that our congregation will continue to face challenges and we will struggle, but the truth is that we can overcome. We can overcome if we follow our Jewish heart. Congregation Beth Shalom has a future and we can make it strong.

WOMAN OF DISTINCTION

Last year, Congregation Beth Shalom nominated Lea Garbett as the Bobbe Karpay Woman of Distinction.

The Bobbe Karpay Women of Distinction Program, an annual event, honors women who represent over twenty Jewish organizations and congregations in the area. The women being honored have worked diligently in creating a long list of accomplishments. They give of their time, their enthusiasm, and their dollars to help make our community and our world a better place. In addition to being dedicated Jewish leaders, these women are also wives, mothers, grandmothers, great-grandmothers, business owners, professionals, and even volunteers for other organizations. They have a vision for their organizations and kehillah (our community) and work hard to turn these visions into realities.

The Tampa JCC and Federation will be holding the ceremony this year virtually on Tuesday, May 11, at 7 p.m.

Tickets are $18 a person. To R.S.V.P., make a tribute gift in honor in a Woman of Distinction recipient, or to place an ad in the program book, please visit www.JewishTampa.com/WOD; or contact Loni Lindsay at loni.lindsay@jewishtampa.com or 813-769-2802.

Kudos & Mazels

Join with CBS in offering congratulations and recognition to the following members on their accomplishments:

KUDOS

- Kudos to Sandy Saviet, chairperson for the library committee, Rachel Duncan, Jimmy Duncan, and Helene Rosenbsaum for organizing our congregation library.
- Kudos to Mark Finke for setting up the chairs for Shabbat services in the sanctuary.
- Kudos to Mark and Sheryl Finke for setting up for Kiddish and Hamotzi.
- Kudos to all our Hillsborough County Schools students for a successful 3rd quarter.

Do you know a CBS member who should be congratulated for a special accomplishment? If so, email the name and accomplishment to cbs-admin@hotmail.com.

PAGE TURNERS

Please join us Monday, May 17, at 7 p.m., as Page Turners discusses Unstoppable by Joshua M Greene.

Unstoppable recounts the fascinating life of Siggi Wilzig, who survived the hell of Hitler and Auschwitz to become one of the biggest success stories in post-World War II American business - a true embodiment of the American Dream. Siggi's ascent from the darkest of yesterdays to the brightest of tomorrows holds sway over the imagination in this riveting narrative of grit, cunning, luck, and the determination to live life to the fullest.

Please see the eBlast newsletter for more information about the Page Turners meeting.

A Note About Pastoral Care

Reb Tuviah wants to know when congregants are in need of pastoral care.

This includes but is not limited to: when our congregants or their family members are in the hospital, recently lost a loved one, or otherwise may need his support.

If you hear about a congregant in need, please contact Reb Tuviah directly at rebtuviah@gmail.com

DINNER WITH THE TRIBE — Anita Clifford

Dinner With the Tribe Resumes

It's been more than a year since we were last together in person and we're itching to get out with friends. Now, let's try this again.

Saturday, May 15, 7 p.m.
Yummy House China Bistro
2620 East Hillsborough Ave.

Due to COVID-19 precautions, we have some restrictions at this time:

- Dinners are limited to 8 people due to social distancing
- You must have had your vaccine shot(s)
- You must wear a mask except when eating or drinking

If you are available, want to get together with others, and like Chinese food, this is your opportunity. Since we are limited to only 8 people, the first 8 to say they will attend can join us.

LIFELONG LEARNING

We are now looking for a volunteer to become chairperson of Lifelong Learning. The Lifelong Learning committee is a creative group of dedicated individuals. Some of the programs they arrange are educational, some are just fun. The committee exists to get the members of Congregation Beth Shalom engaged and involved.

If you are interested in becoming chairperson or even becoming a committee member, please contact Toby Koch at tobykoch@hotmail.com.

Jewish Healing Circle

As humans, we are all in need of healing.

As friends, caregivers, family members, and planetary citizens, we can pray for ourselves and all those in need of healing.

Let us come together to form a healing community through prayer, reflection and song in our tradition.

Thursday, May 13th at 6:30pm
via Zoom

Please join Reb Tuviah and special guest Sue Gurland for an evening of "Healing Through Song & Chant."

CONFIRMATION

Calling all teens who want to continue to explore their growth and knowledge of Judaism, Jewish thought, and Jewish life!

Plans are now under way with Reb Tuviah to meet with our confirmation students, youth group members, and any interested teens ages 13-16 effective with the 2020-21 school year. We are considering meeting monthly, but no specific dates have been identified.

Topics being considered for these meetings could include:

- how to address modern issues within the text of Jewish law,
- ethical practices,
- the place of Israel in our lives,
- anti-Semitism and racism, and
- other religions.

However, we welcome any suggestions from our youth or their parents.

With your help, the curriculum can be exciting and interesting –and we hope to provide further conversations within families about Judaism and Jewish life.

If you have any suggestions for this program, please reach out to Reb Tuviah at rebtuviah@gmail.com or the temple office.

DONATIONS

Congregation Beth Shalom accepts donations for many purposes, with a variety of opportunities for donors to support the good works of the Temple. You may contact the office either by phone or email to make a contribution, or head to our website to make a secure online payment through a PayPal account or by using a credit card.

Funds:

- General Fund (unrestricted): An unrestricted gift to the General Fund allows the temple to use those funds wherever they may be needed most. This fund incorporates contributions received from our High Holy Day Appeal, Yahrzeit donations, Bricklets, Adopt-A-Book, Tree of Life (unless otherwise indicated) and other non-restricted gifts.
- Building Fund: A fund to ensure the continuing physical growth of our spiritual home. Intended for capital improvements and major building repairs.
- Endowment Fund: Gifts to this fund are placed in an investment account and temporarily restricted or can be defined/restricted by the donor. This fund ensures the future of our temple.
- Religious School Scholarship Fund: These funds will be made available to Religious School students who are in need of tuition assistance, as determined confidentially by the Treasurer.
- Rabbi's Discretionary Fund: a fund for assistance to families in need, scholarship assistance, interfaith council, Holocaust museum and other endeavors at the Rabbi's discretion.
- Youth Group Fund: a fund that supports the ongoing engagement of post b'nai mitzvah youth, providing meaningful and fun experiences for our teens, and keeping them connected to their Jewish community.

If you wish to designate a gift to a particular purpose, for example, Food Bank, Choir, Oneg, Social Action, etc., you may do so by noting as such on your payment method or with an accompanying note; otherwise, your gift will be used where it is needed most.

Opportunities:

- Adopt-A-Book: A dedication label will be placed in one of our prayer books, to commemorate a simcha or in honor or memory of a loved one for just $54.
- Bricklets: For as little as $9 you can send a Bricklet Card instead of buying a card for birthdays, condolences, etc. A Bricklet Card in your name will be sent to the person you wish stating that a donation has been made in his or her name to Beth Shalom to honor the occasion.
- Tree of Life: The Tree of Life is on the back wall of our Sanctuary. An engraved leaf or stone can commemorate many simchas, b'nai mitzvah, wedding, birth, graduations, etc. Leaves are $180, and stones are $1800.
- Yahrzeit Plaque: To honor the death of a loved one, you may purchase a plaque that will be cared for in perpetuity for $350. The name of the deceased along with their date of death is included on the plaque.

*Unless otherwise noted by you, your gift will be acknowledged in The Kibbitzer the month following its receipt.
If your donation is incorrectly listed or omitted, please notify the temple office immediately.*

Donations listed below were received between March 16 and April 15.

Babysitters

Contact the temple office for a list of available babysitters. Contact information, qualifications and transportation details are available for each sitter. We will not publish information about our younger members online due to privacy concerns.

ATTENTION! We send The Kibbitzer out online. This change has been made to help decrease one of our expenses at Beth Shalom.

However, if you prefer receiving your Kibbitzer via the US Mail, please call the Temple at (813) 681-6547 or e-mail the Temple (cbs-admin@hotmail.com) to tell us you do not want to get your Kibbitzer online. Please help Beth Shalom cut its expenses and receive your Kibbitzer sooner.

Thank You.
